

Midwest Intercollegiate Volleyball Association Inc. (“MIVA”)
RELEASE OF LIABILITY AND RECOGNITION OF VOLUNTEER STATUS (“Release”)

The undersigned individuals, on behalf of themselves and the organizations they represent agree to the following:

1. That they recognize the inherent risks in the sport of volleyball including, without limitation, muscular, nerve and bone damage, and that notwithstanding these risks, they agree to participate in this sport knowing that neither the MIVA nor any of its representatives provide insurance or any form of reimbursement for any costs, injuries or damages associated with participation, planning, traveling to or engagement in actual competition or any other MIVA related function.

2. That they acknowledge that the Commissioner, his/her designee(s), Directors of Competition, MIVA coaches, trainers, assistants, and tournament directors are acting in volunteer capacities and that funds paid to them through the MIVA are for reimbursement and out of pocket expenditures made by them in connection with their volunteer status.

3. That they release the Commissioner, his/her designees, Directors of Competition, MIVA coaches, trainers, assistants, tournament directors, match officials and college or university personnel from any liability arising in connection with planning or executing any MIVA event(s). This release is not intended to include conduct characterized as grossly negligent and intentionally designed so as to cause foreseeable damage.

4. That they willingly sign this document and agree to abide by applicable rules of participation; that they shall notify any person not signing this document but wishing to participate in the MIVA, of the contents of this Release and all MIVA rules, and, that participation in MIVA events shall be preconditioned upon acceptance of this Release, and compliance with all applicable rules.
